

The Association of Accountants and Financial Professionals
in Business

Wednesday, January 22, 2014

Improv Event on Ethics
By the Theater of Public Policy

The Theater of Public Policy explores big ideas using improv comedy. Based in Minneapolis, MN, they have traveled all over the state to perform in front of diverse audiences on a wide range of topics.

Described by the Star Tribune as "Minnesota's answer to Jon Stewart and Stephen Colbert," The Theater of Public Policy brings real conversations about important issues to life through completely unscripted comedy theater. For this special event with IMA, The Theater of Public Policy players will collect ethical dilemmas from the audience. Then the cast will bring those to life, on stage, through improv scenes.

You'll laugh. You'll learn. And we just may figure out an unexpected approach to an ethical quandary or two.

Check out their website, www.T2P2.net, for more information, and a short video that explains how the show works.

Location:

Interlachen Country Club
6200 Interlachen Blvd
Edina, MN 55436
Complimentary Valet Parking is included

Time:

5:30 PM Check-in and Networking
6:00 PM Dinner and Presentation

Cost:

$20 IMA Member
$30 Non-IMA Member

Registration:

Visit the events page on our website, www.minneapolisima.org, to RSVP and prepay via PayPal by Friday, 1/17

Dinner includes Miso Chilean Sea Bass (Fresh Baked Miso Marinated Sea Bass with Miso Sauce), Caesar Salad, Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Glazed Carrots, Fresh Baked Breads, Regular and Decaffeinated Coffee, Hot Tea Assortment, Iced Tea, and Milk.

* * This is a joint meeting with the Saint Paul IMA Chapter * *